

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obliged to serve the public interest. Their decision to force their stations to air "Stolen Honor", an anti-Kerry program is not in the public interest. It must be considered a political advertisement and should be noted as such and should not be free of charge.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
